Christmas time is drawing near, and already our express agent is receiving packages to be delivered Christmas day. A glance about the storage room, which is usually kept locked, to keep out prying eyes, reveals packages and boxes in endless variety. Some of them are quite valuable. One evening this week a small package came in on the cannon ball, for one of our fair ones, valued at seventy-five dollars, and a number may look for very pleasant surprises from the express office with the advent of the great annual festival.
Go to J. C. Maynards for Christmas candies.

Still We Come!

Once more we are happy to state to the people of Adair county that we have just received an other large stock of Boots & Shoes, including Standard St. Louis and Chicago custom made goods, splendid and guaranteed to be all right. We are selling them at the same ruinously low prices as heretofore, because we bought at a big sacrifice. We also have received 100 suits of clothing, first class goods and latest styles which we can sell at two-thirds its value—Overcoats and Cloaks at great discounts. Call and see that we mean just what we say.

CONSUMPTION CURED

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hand by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 149 "Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y. n71f
